Holiday Island Dreams...

MANY NICE LOTS FOR SALE AT BARGAIN PRICES!

The original homestead in Holiday Island has been transformed into a warm country cottage. Whether this is a second home or a primary residence, this place has it all. Hardwood floors throughout the home accent the slate in the kitchen & sunroom. Special accents include stained glass features and triple-pane windows. Original stripped timbers grace the living room and hallway ceilings. Abundant storage. This spacious home would be perfect for visiting grandchildren or raising a family. A must see! #1039971. $229,900.

A short walk to the Holiday Island recreation center, pool and golf course and minutes from the Marina, make this beautifully updated and maintained home all one could want. Fantastic views that overlook the golf course, mountains and water are perfect for those relaxing times. 2 large BRs and 2.5BAs. This house provides spacious living with no maintenance. Everything about this property is top notch, from the new carpet to the many special details. A real move-in ready home and a must see. #1057338. $99,900.

Breathtaking panoramic views from the deck and family room provide for true four season enjoyment. This home is truly very special with two masters, both with impeccable designed bathroom suites. Other major upgrades include beautiful flooring, whole house filtration and backup generator, and large retractable window coverings for increased energy efficiency. The yard area leading down to Table Rock Lake is graced with the beauty of large Ozark natural rock formations, the perfect lake home finish. #1058092. $229,900.

This beautiful contemporary designed home is located at the end of a cul-de-sac providing a secluded setting, yet close to everything that Holiday Island has to offer. Floor to ceiling windows and large deck areas provide great views of the valley. The custom hardwood floors glow from the natural light entering from the large windows and the loft area. Several natural garden areas surround this oversized lot, making it truly feel like Serenity Lane. #1058099. $215,000.
